

ESD 112 BOARD RECOGNITION

Celebrating our successes!

June 2017

That's a wrap,
2016-17!

TOO much fun!

Spirit of ESD 112 Awards

ESD Facilities & Maintenance Operations Staff:
Rick Batterberry, Will Legg, Frank
Fiolek, Jon Fulton, Terry Cantrell,
Edwin Borja, Daniel Ostrowski

Nancy Madsen
Early Intervention Educator

Alternate Routes teacher recognized by student body

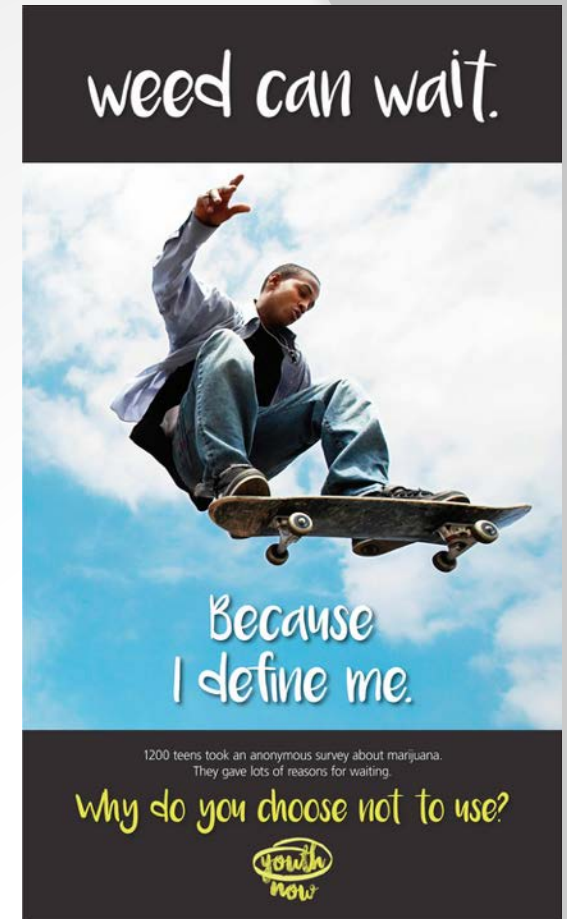

Kayli Hurley recently completed her teaching certification in June through the Alternate Routes program. She has been teaching special education at Wahkiakum High School while attending City University this year. She was chosen as “Teacher of the Year” by the high school student body.

Prevention campaign receives national award

Communications and Prevent staff recently received a Golden Achievement Award from the National School PR Association for the Weed Can Wait and Cannabis Conversations campaign.

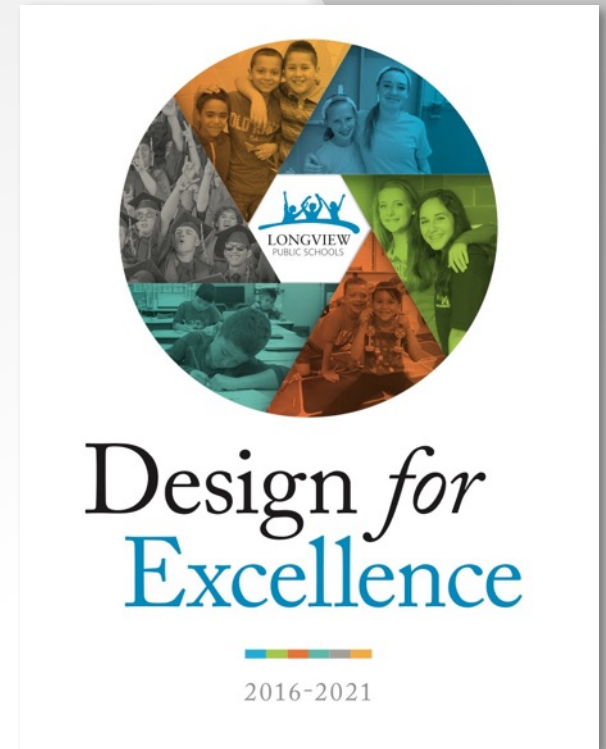

NSRA

Award-winning communications!

Sarah Coomber and Melissa Burt received a Best in Category – Special Publication award from the Washington School Public Relations Association for a Longview Public Schools publication.

ECEAP teachers recognized by parent at ceremony

Donna Wilbur and Becky McPhun, ECEAP teachers at Image, were recognized by a Native American parent for their outstanding efforts this year. They were invited to a traditional celebration and potluck on June 3.

Kelley Groen graduates from Leadership Clark County

Student & School Success staff member, Kelley Groen graduates from LCC

“LCC connects and engages current and emerging leaders in Clark County “

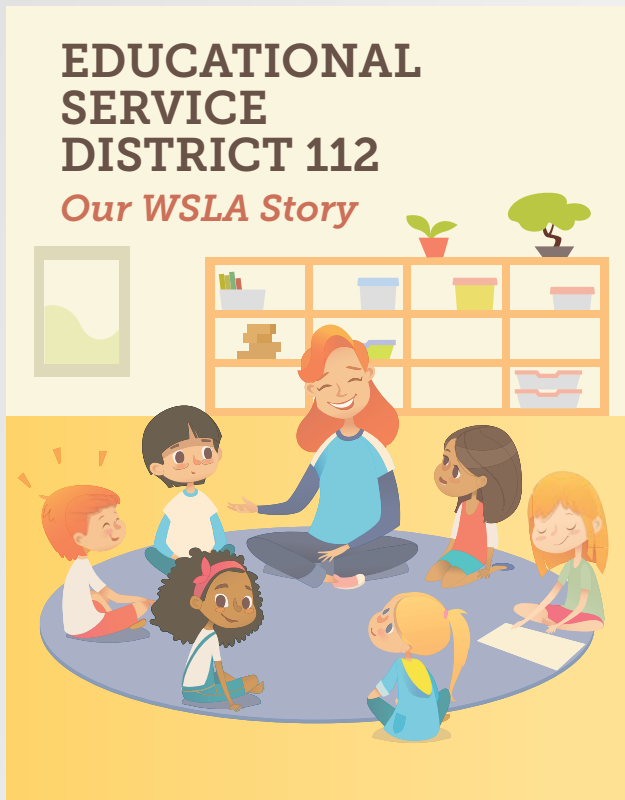

Lots of current and former ESDers gathered to wish Debbie well on her next adventure on June 21.

We'll miss you, Debbie!

Cabinet 7 Executive Directors present POP at state leadership conference

“How can we develop a system for early learning that produces student growth and ensures Kindergarten Readiness through the interaction of professional learning, shared resources, and engagement of partners?”

